June 9/85 - #13 Friday Evng.

Yr. letter came tonight - just marked - Pth - - You must not say little me be anxious about me ever - See now. And wonderful!
Monday A. M. I thought I was very nearly sick - but I co. on. have been - In I have been getting better ever since - tho it is not certain that convalescent we want that applies to condition of each obstructions health & appetite as I enjoy, Cold's gone.
I understand perfectly can is falling - everything that grows worse it - Addy, Dr

you think there was anything of the power in the sound of "cheap book"? please don't.

You sent for 9 bottles - I am sorry I did not keep your goods. I thought you might want your flannel & that you might have an early opportunity to send.

Dear Aunt
how like her it was to give something out of sight. So is it with my Sarah always.
Addy there is another
out of bereavement
where all this sweet homeless power of humble human love asks only that it ^{may} help, not be

Thanked for helping, shall be shown through with clear light & all the world, and be done, shall see that it is Beauty.

I did not go to Mr. Gushy's - but this A. M. I was at my rooms for 5 minutes (the sheds are not yet up - over comes tomorrow to do it) - I found a lovely rose of honey-suckle on the table & a postcard from Lizzie who went off yesterday A. M. & began a fortnight - Our next-door neighbor - the richeth is the father of over.

The worms, small progeny of mine, have

Throw plenty to school -
But they are gone now & down - & the trees are on & brown.

Yr next letter will tell me perhaps when & if you will come -
This is so good - so good.

60 Oct. 1888. I am
are overburdened & finished.
& I hope to work there mornings at least, as early as next week.

Good night - Good night.
& Sarah says love I know because she said something about writing. & I said. Father & Mother if they were here.
